welcome to trobar
the place where:

The eternal seekers go crazy when the perfect song comes up in the perfect place, at the perfect time. They become soulmates by just saying 'I love the way you think'. They collect art because of the impact on their lives, not their pockets. They save all the umami experiences in the most intricate corners of the mind. And collect all that makes life worth living day after day, time and time again. That's why they always come back here; to find everything they once found. Just like you do.

trobat.co was established as an online marketplace to showcase and sell the work of over 35 emerging artists from around the world — a curated collection of original artworks that celebrates talent, craft, and creative expression. our online store was established in 2021 and ships worldwide. From that foundation, trobar was born — our physical, conceptual space to experience these pieces in person and step into the world we've created. The space itself was interior designed in collaboration with our founder and trobat.co artists along with all our tableware. In Catalan, trobat means "found," representing the treasures we've discovered and brought together online; while trobar means "to find" — the act of seeking, of connecting, of uncovering beauty. trobat.co se creó como un mercado en línea para mostrar y vender la obra de más de 35 artistas emergentes de todo el mundo, una colección seleccionada de obras de arte originales que celebra el talento, la artesanía y la expresión creativa. nuestra tienda en línea se creó en 2021 y realiza envíos a todo el mundo. a partir de ahí nació trobar, nuestro espacio físico y conceptual para experimentar estas obras en persona y adentrarse en el mundo que hemos creado. el espacio en sí fue diseñado en colaboración con nuestro fundador y artistas trobat.co junto con toda nuestra vajilla. en catalán, trobat significa «encontrado», que representa los tesoros que hemos descubierto y reunido en línea, mientras que trobar significa «encontrar», el acto de buscar, de conectar, de descubrir la belleza. Es el lugar al que ha venido para encontrar y experimentar lo que nosotros ya hemos encontrado para usted.

al comprar con nosotros, está apoyando directamente el arte hecho a mano por artesanos creativos y prometedores de todo el mundo.

the place where:
